OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES

1. Mr. William Phillips of the School of Advanced International Studies suggested that Mrs. Lockwood of the Carnegie Endowment Fund talk with Mrs. [REDACTED] or his brother, [REDACTED], regarding training of personnel for overseas assignments.

Mrs. [REDACTED] met with Mrs. Lockwood on 28 November at the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel. (The meeting was cleared with Security by the OTR Security Officer, Mr. [REDACTED]) Mrs. Lockwood explained that originally she had not intended including CIA; however, Harlan Cleveland of Syracuse University, author of the book "Overseasmanship", had told her that CIA had the best training program of any organization sending individuals overseas. This fact led Mrs. Lockwood to ask [REDACTED] for a suggested person to contact.

Mrs. Lockwood is preparing a study covering the practices used in the United States for recruiting and training of personnel to be sent overseas as technical assistants. She has prepared a questionnaire to be completed by individuals in government and business that will provide a basis for the study.
